Charleston, WV – August 9, 2004: The West Virginia Humanities Council seeks nominations for the 2004 Charles H. Daugherty Award in the Humanities. The award is presented annually to recognize those who significantly contribute to the humanities in West Virginia.

Nominations may be made by individuals or organizations on behalf of an individual, or individuals may nominate themselves. Letters of nomination should be no more than three pages in length and should briefly describe the nominee's work in the humanities. The nomination letter should include the nominee's name, address and telephone number(s). The deadline for nominations is October 1. No other special form is required for submission.

Started in 1987 as the Humanities Award, the name of the award was changed in 1996 to the Charles H. Daugherty Award in the Humanities in honor of Daugherty who retired that year after serving as the Council director for twenty years. Former award winners include Otis Rice, Ancella Bickley, Robert C. Byrd, Armand Singer, Louise McNeil Pease, Jim Comstock, Barbara Howe, Forrest Kirkpatrick, Henry Lewis Gates, Jr., Alan Gould, Richard Currey, Denise Giardina, Judith Stitzel, Fred Barkey, John Cuthbert, Emory Kemp and Mary Lee Settle.
